The Vineyard Curriculum

Reading at the Vineyard enables our children to become informed, inspired and curious.

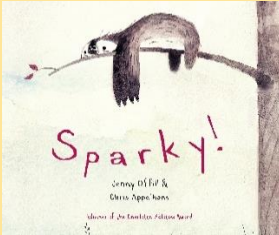

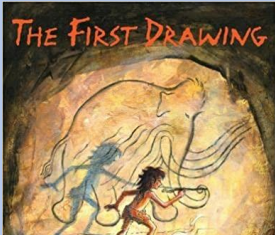

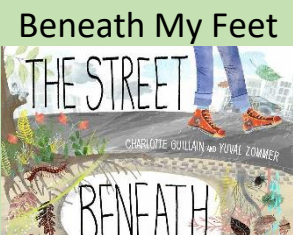

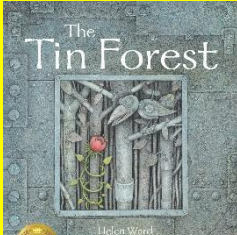

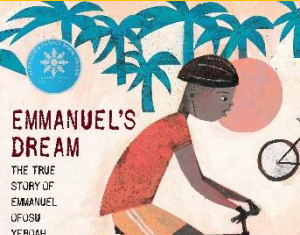

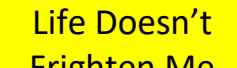

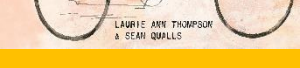

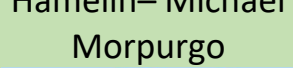

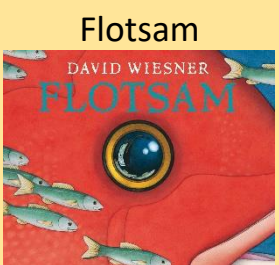

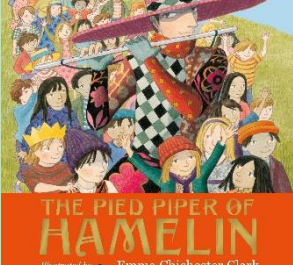

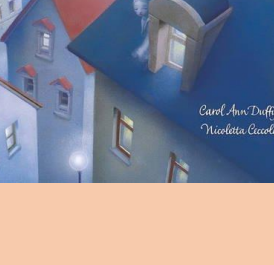

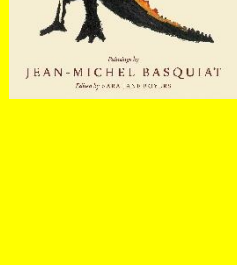

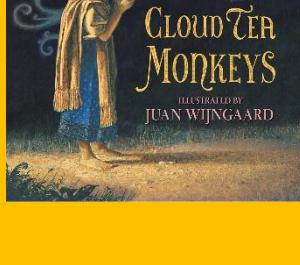

A Vineyard Reader:

- Enjoys reading, showing a willingness and desire to be engaged in a book daily.
- Appreciates a range of text types including fiction, non-fiction, poetry, picture books and chapter books.
- Has the ability to confidently and fluently read out loud utilising intonation and rhythm.
 - Identifies books that they have enjoyed and can explain why they enjoyed that book.
 - Is able to give recommendations based off books they have read.
- Can make links between other books they have read and other areas of the curriculum.
